

Editor's Comment:

Regarding the above-sent paper:

1. The title, as in previous papers, I consider is too long
2. In Conclusions (at plural), it is needed that these experiences and good results be spread and used in other regions of India, or in other countries, as good practices.
3. The References are wrongly written. The authors in the alphabetical order of their last names and, IMMEDIATELY AFTER, the year of publishing.

Thus, the first reference is Badi V. et al (2011)....., Batra Avinash and Vikas (2023), Chand Ramesh et al (2022)..... and the last one is Veeresh O. K. (2011)..... In this last case, the correct form is former Vice-Chancellor, not farmer Vice-Chancellor.

Also, the correct forms are pos. 5 Naikwadi Prashant (?), pos. 6 Mahadev Nalimmela Venu (2023).

A quick revision of the language and the positions of signs like : and; immediately after the previous word, not with a space.

And, the word nowadays, exactly the first word of the Abstract and a couple of times in the text of the paper.

And the entire paper to be written TNR 12, not 14.

OK for publishing after corrections.
