

Editor's Comment:

The research team, along with selected external translators, translated the MPSU VMT (Mountain Province State University – Visions, Missions, and Thrusts) and Core Values from L2 to L1. This study examines the cultural and linguistic aspects of the translation process. Key methods included bilingual techniques from local translators. The findings show that translation can help students and stakeholders improve their understanding and skills through the translated VMT and Core Values. The study recommends approving the verified translation to meet the AACUP's suggestions and benefit stakeholders. Accepted.
