Manuscript has appropriate content for the book Achievements and Challenges of Medicine and Medical Science. Except for few grammatical errors concerning word-spacing which needs to be corrected, few abbreviations which need full form to be mentioned and one correction regarding allogenic and autologous transplants, the content sequencing and bibliography is appropriate. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Introduction paragraph, line 4, consider changing full stop to colon, to indicate a list of points in the following line</li> <li>3.
